Skincare Manufacturers

Focus on 3 exhibitors

B.kolormakeup & skincare, always attentive to innovation and to a makeup constantly linked to skin care. A twenty-year evolutionary experience that puts more and more emphasis on facial and body treatment products with scientificity and creativity, leading it to realize concepts and textures that have an aura of excellence proved by the numerous awards that over the past two years have made it a leader in innovation in the world of skin care.

A skin care that looks to the future through a mix of naturalness and scientific performance with sensory-functional concepts to be discovered, using the most complex and microbial elements of the marine world, revamping the simple naturalness of the CBD, in search of what it is more sustainable by embellishing it and incorporating it in unique and sophisticated structures.

All this and much more, together with six collections of new make-up proposals, is what you discover and experience at the B.kolormakeup & skincare stand in the Makeup setting in NewYork.
